- Finalists in DECA Inc.'s online competitive events; and

Top 4-10	$300
Top 11-20	$150

Attendance in the Ignite, Elevate, Empower, Aspire, Thrive, and SBE academies is highly limited and will be granted after all priority qualification decisions have been made. An application will be distributed after the State Career Development Conference for chapters to submit attendance requests for these academies.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Each student, advisor, and chaperone attending ICDC must pay the Arizona DECA registration fee. Spouses and children do not have to pay the registration fee, but need permission to attend from Arizona DECA due to limited hotel inventory. Spouses and children do not receive any conference materials. After registration closes, no refunds will be given for a decrease in chapter registration due to an attendee who can no longer attend the conference.

All advisors and students are required to attend the conference from the beginning of the Grand Opening Session to the conclusion of the Grand Awards Session. No exceptions to this rule will be granted.

One advisor or chaperone must be registered for every eight student attendees.

Chapters must arrange their own airfare, airport transfers, and meals. Optional ICDC tour packages can be purchased by chapters through DECA Inc. Free transportation will be provided between the hotel and the Walt Disney World theme parks, Disney Springs, and the Orange County Convention Center.

INTERNATIONAL CAREER DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

STEP 1: ATTENDANCE NOTIFICATION

By March 6, email info@azdeca.org to confirm:

1. Whether or not your chapter will be attending ICDC.
2. A list of the qualifiers from your chapter that will be attending.

Any qualifiers that have not been confirmed by the deadline will be disqualified from attendance.

STEP 2: CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

By March 15, register your chapter's attendance and competitive event selections at membership.decaregistration.com (under the "Conferences" tab).

STEP 3: HOUSING REGISTRATION

By March 15, register your chapter's housing at bit.ly/AZDECAICDC.

Student rooms will be automatically combined with other chapters in order to maximize Arizona DECA's attendance. Student rooms are reserved first and adult rooms are limited. School districts with very strict rules requiring multiple advisors or chaperones must accept that Arizona DECA may be unable to accommodate multiple adult rooms exceeding the one adult per eight students ratio.

Chapter roommate requests for student or advisor rooms may be submitted during registration, but cannot be guaranteed. These requests should be coordinated between the applicable chapters prior to registration.

All conference attendees are required to stay at the Holiday Inn Orlando - Disney Springs Area or designated overflow hotel. All attendees registered in Step Two must be included in the housing request.

STEP 4: REGISTRATION CONFIRMATION

Await an email from info@azdeca.org asking you to confirm your chapter's registration. You must confirm your registration in order to complete your registration. Note that this email will come after all conference registration for all chapters is compiled, and will not arrive until the week of March 18.

STEP 5: PAYMENT DEADLINES

By April 11, all conference and housing registration payments are due to Arizona DECA. All checks are payable to Arizona DECA and must be sent to PO Box 1440, Owasso, OK, 74055.

DECA blazers are required for all competitors and may be purchased at shopdeca.org until March 29.

The optional ICDC tour packages are limited and sell out. To buy tickets, go to deca.org/icdc.

PRESIDENTIAL GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

A Governance Committee will be appointed for the High School Division. The purpose of the committee will be to act upon all violations of the Delegate Conduct Practices and Procedures within the division. The conduct guidelines were approved by the Board of Directors for DECA Inc. and apply to adult advisors as well as student delegates.

A copy of the Delegate Conduct Practices and Procedures and ICDC Dress Code may be found in this section. The dress code applies to all participants while in the convention center and convention facilities. The Board of Directors of DECA Inc. requires every student delegate to read and complete these forms as partial completion of ICDC attendance requirements. Please make sufficient copies for your delegates to sign and return to you prior to the International Career Development Conference. Chartered association advisors may wish to bring these forms with them to the conference for possible reference. PLEASE DO NOT MAIL TO DECA INC.

The chartered association advisor will be notified (in writing) of all violations. Notices may require the committee to assemble and take such action as is outlined in the Conference Conduct Practices and Procedures.

CODE OF ETHICS FOR ADULT ADVISORS

DECA offers training to those students who have a career objective in the field of marketing, finance, hospitality, management or entrepreneurship. Individual conduct and appearance is a phase of this training. This phase of the education program becomes apparent at DECA's International Career Development Conference.

Since a good example is one method of teaching, and students participating in the conference are impressionable, a Code of Ethics is set for adult advisors.

It becomes the responsibility of each and every participant to see that proper conduct is adhered to at all times. Violations of these practices and procedures will be referred to the president of the Board of Directors for DECA Inc.

- Advisors shall conduct daily meetings with participants for progress reports, time schedules and other activities.
- Advisors shall keep an agenda for each student so that they may be reached at any time during the conference.
- Each chartered association shall arrange to have one advisor on call at all times.
- Each advisor shall be responsible for seeing that participants adhere to all conduct practices and procedures.
- The rules as stated in the Delegate Conduct Practices and Procedures and the Dress Code are called to your attention for review and should govern the behavior of advisors as well as students.

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

DECA Inc. is committed to creating and maintaining a healthy and respectful environment for all of our emerging leaders and entrepreneurs. Our philosophy is to ensure all members, regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or socio-economic status, are treated equally and respectfully. Any behavior in the form of discrimination, harassment or bullying will not be tolerated. It is the responsibility of all members to uphold and contribute to this climate.

DELEGATE CONDUCT PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES

The Board of Directors for DECA Inc. requires each delegate attending the International Career Development Conference to read and complete the Attendance Permission Form and return to the DECA chartered association advisor as partial completion of attendance requirements.

- The term “delegate” shall mean any DECA member, including advisors, attending conferences (high school, collegiate, alumni, professional).
- There shall be no defacing of public property. Any damage to any property or furnishing in the hotel rooms or building must be paid for by the individual or chapter responsible.
- Delegates must wear identification badges and wristbands at all times.
- Delegates shall refrain from using inappropriate or profane language at all times.
- Delegates shall refrain from written, verbal, physical or electronic activities that may lead to harassment, hazing, bullying or damaging property.
- The use of any harassment against anyone on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, ancestry, age, gender, sexual orientation, or disability is prohibited.
- Delegates shall respect the rights and safety of other hotel guests.
- Delegates shall not possess alcoholic beverages, narcotics or weapons in any form at any time under any circumstances.
- Delegates shall refrain from gambling—playing cards, dice or games of chance for money or other things of value.
- Use of tobacco products and electronic cigarettes by delegates is prohibited at all DECA functions.
- Delegates must adhere to the dress code at all times.
- Delegates must not dress or behave in a manner than can be interpreted as sexually explicit.
- Students shall keep their adult advisors informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
- No delegate shall leave the hotel (except for authorized events) unless permission has been received from chapter and chartered association advisors.
- Delegates should be prompt and prepared for all activities.
- Delegates should be financially prepared for all activities.
- Delegates are required to attend all sessions and activities assigned including workshops, competitive events, committee meetings, etc., for which they are registered unless engaged in some specific assignment scheduled at the same time.
- Delegates will spend nights at their assigned hotel and in their assigned room. No guests allowed during curfew hours. Delegates will be quiet at curfew.
- Curfew will be enforced. Curfew means the delegate will be in his/her assigned room.
- Chartered associations will be responsible for delegates’ conduct.
- Delegates ignoring or violating any of the above rules will subject their entire delegation to being unseated and their candidates or competitive events participants to being disqualified. Individual delegates may be sent home immediately at their own expense.
- Tasteful casual wear will be accepted during specific social functions as designated during orientation.

DECA

DRESS CODE

Professional appearance is an important aspect of the overall preparation of DECA members for the business world. To that end, DECA supports a dress code for its career-based functions that exemplifies the highest standards of professionalism while being non-discriminatory between genders.

DECA's board of directors has developed the following official dress standards for the International Career Development Conference. Students, advisors and chaperones must follow the dress code.

Competitors must wear an official DECA blazer during interaction with the judges. While official DECA blazers are not required during briefing and testing, professional business dress is required. Professional dress should also be worn to all conference sessions including workshops and special meal functions such as luncheons.

For a more polished, professional appearance, it is recommended that attendees wear appropriate hosiery/socks.

All skirts and dresses must be at or below the knee.

AN OFFICIAL DECA BLAZER IS REQUIRED TO RECEIVE RECOGNITION OR AN AWARD ON STAGE.

- Unacceptable types of dress shoes include boat shoes, canvas or fabric shoes, flip flops or casual sandals, athletic shoes, industrial work shoes and hiking boots.

When judging adherence to the dress code, DECA asks that advisors, teachers and chaperones use observation as the tool for assessing compliance. DECA does not support or condone the touching of students or their clothing as a means of determining whether or not a student is following the dress code guidelines.

Any medical exceptions to this code must be documented in the conference headquarters prior to the beginning of the conference. This is the responsibility of the local advisor.
